Preparation of manuscripts

All manuscripts should be typed on one side of the A4 paper, double-spaced throughout, with margins of at least 25mm all around. All contributions will be subjected to editorial revision.

Major headings are centered, all capitals except for scientific names and the full length papers should consist of Abstract, Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results and Discussion, Acknowledgement (optional) and References. First subheadings begin at the left margin and the text that follows a first subheading should be in a new paragraph.

Full length papers should normally not exceed 3000 words in length including tables and illustrations i.e. approximately five journal pages and should contain the following section, each written concisely:

A Title page containing (a) the title of the paper in capital letters in exception for scientific names, (b) the names of authors in full with initials at the beginning, (c) the authors’ department and complete postal address. Superscript numbers should be used to link authors with other institution. Provide maximum of five key words for full length paper and three for short communication for subject indexing. The author wise contribution should also be mentioned in nutshell.

An Abstract will be printed at the beginning of the paper. Abstract should not be more than 150 words emphasizing objectives, experimental procedure, results and conclusions.

Use complete sentences and limit the use of abbreviations. It should be in a form suitable for abstracting journals to use.

A brief introduction with specific emphasis on the necessity for such a kind of research may be given.

Materials and methods section may refer to previous description of methods whenever possible. This section should include experimental designs and methods of statistical analysis.

Results and Discussion may contain subheading if appropriate. This part should be brief and to the point, without repetition of results.

An Acknowledgement section, if required, may be given.

References section should contain only essential references which should be listed alphabetically and written as indicated below. In the text, give the author's name followed by the year in parenthesis: Suresh (2009). If there are two authors, use 'and': Suresh and Mani (2015); but if cited within parenthesis: (Suresh and Mani, 2015). When reference is made to a work by three or more authors, the first name followed by et.al. should be used: Rama et.al.(2015); but if cited within parenthesis: (Rama et.al., 2015). Reference to unpublished data and personal communications should not appear in the list but should be cited in the text only (e.g. Amutha T, 2015. Unpublished data).
